Dear Dr Williams,

Further to my letter to you on 27 April 2021, I write to advise that National Records of Scotland (NRS) has published guidance for the sex question in Scotland's Census 2022. The guidance for the sex question can be viewed on the Scotland's Census website.

NRS are committed to delivering a census in 2022 which enables all of Scotland to participate and meets the needs of a wide range of data users.

Yours sincerely,

PAUL LOWE
Chief Executive
